Beyond the Shore...

Beyond the pictures lies the past.
Beyond the past lies today,
passing almost too quickly to grasp.
Beyond the laughter lies a story
one will never forget.
Beyond the books lies the key to success.
Beyond the tears we cry, lies the truth that builds our strength.
Beyond the sunshine lies the inspiration to proceed, and
Beyond the bonds lie everlasting friendships.
Beyond the smiling faces lies anticipation to pursue,
And beyond the shore lies the pathway to our future.

The week began with a blast from the past; everyone on campus was kickin' it old skool. Day 2 was "-er" day and Nauset's creativity was put to the test. On Day 3, it was considered normal to see friends decked out in their favorite characters' attire. Day 4 brought the traditional Spirit Day, and the campus was cascaded with competition between classes; far beyond the black and gold.

Thumbs up!! Moments before pep rally begins, sophomore Garrett McEnaney and senior Courtney Dubois display their Nauset enthusiasm.

Grooving their way into first place for the second year in a row, the Girls Soccer Team won the skit competition. They dressed in army outfits and danced to "It's Tricky".

Thrillin' the audience, the boys and girls Cross Country teams unite to do their interpretation of the legendary Michael Jackson dance routine.

Kayla Michelle Adams

Class of 2009, I can't believe this is it! We all have accomplished so much these past four years. Mom and Dad: You guys have been there for me through thick and thin. I would have never been able to make it through my four years of h.s. without you guys. I love you so much! Thank you for everything you have given me! Josh, Jess, Tanya: I have looked up to you guys for everything, and I still do. I appreciate everything you guys have done for me over the past 18 years, love you so much! Emily: I don't know where to start. We have been best friends since day one and I wouldn't want to change that for anything. Good luck next year in school. I will miss you so much, luv ya! To everyone else, good luck, we did it!

I, Kayla Adams, bequeath to Megan Leyton her last volleyball season and "Brazil" an unforgettable senior year. Make the best of it!

"Your vision will become clear only when you look into your heart. Who looks outside, dreams. Who looks inside, awakens."

-Carl Jung

Stephen Allen

At Nauset, like every one else, I've lived and learned, loved and lost, listened and lamented. I possibly didn't do as much loving or learning, as everyone else, but that's what the rest of life is for. Thank you all, from the bottom of my heart, for what I did gain.

"Only themselves understand themselves and the like of themselves, as souls only understand souls."

-Walt Whitman

Corey Amerault

Four years have come and gone too quickly. Although only two of my high school years were spent at Nauset, I must say, they have been the best by far. I want to thank my friends for always being there for me when I need them most and they know who they are. Also, thanks to my family for believing in me to make it this far. I could not have done it without any of them. Nothing feels better than knowing I made it. Senior Class of '09 doesn't get any better!

"We're graduating from high school, not from each other."

Can't wait to see where the future will bring us.

I, Colby Avery, bequeath Manuel an endless supply of gas money, Dean and Troy a great senior year and the exploder, and Karly nothing but the best.

Chelsea M. Bassett

Wow, this was fun! To come and go and say I am the same person would disregard everything I've experienced in the past four years. Stargazing in beach parking lots, Pixi Sticks and blowing bubbles ceaselessly; life is simply sweet! Thanks Mom and Dad for always being there. To Chelsea, Aubrey, Sara, you guys have truly made these years spectacular! Even 'I love you' sounds too fickle to express how much you mean to me. To the class of '09, I wish you all beautiful lives.

I, Chelsea Bassett, bequeath two more years of puddle jumping and funny looks from Mr. Mac, to my sister Emily.

"But I can't go back to yesterday, I was a different person then."

You have taught me so much. Good luck in the coast guard baby. I love you. Katie, my best friend since freshman year. No matter where we go in life I'll still be there for you. Congratulations!

Here's to the crazy ones. The misfits. The rebels. The troublemakers. The round pegs in the square hole. The ones who see things differently. They're not fond of rules. And they have no respect for the status quo. You can quote them, disagree with them, glorify or vilify them. About the only thing you can't do is ignore them. Because they change things. They push the human race forward. And while some may see them as the crazy ones, we see genius. Because the people who are crazy enough to think they can change the world, are the ones who do. The Door has just opened, the next step is to walk through and there is NO looking back.

Thomas Caliri

You could say the past couple years have been like a roller coaster, but you'd be hard pressed to find a roller coaster that effectively turns you inside out while traveling upside down at close to the speed of light. Maybe it spins too, who knows. Regardless, the ride wouldn't have been any fun without someone to share it with, which I have my parents and friends to thank for. And though it seems like this ride is almost over, I hear there's another awesome one nearby. I'll be in line.

It is times like those during high school when you are glad who your teachers are. I have always thought that a good teacher is not just about how they teach, no, it is also important that your teacher has a good sense of humor too. If a teacher can't take a joke, and always acts serious, how can their students relax and have fun while learning every once in a while? Sure, when a test comes around you have to be serious, but there's nothing wrong with having fun during class. I consider myself to be very lucky to have been taught by the teachers that I have had over the last four years, and to have had so many memorable moments during my time at Nauset. I have learned alot, and I am proud of my accomplishments. Finally, I would like to wish the best to every student who will go through this High School, and hope they have as much fun here as I did.

The typical thanks are in order, but don't need to be written. It doesn't matter how many times people say that high school flies by, I'm still incredulous at how true it is. I realize I'll never get these years back, I won't get the chance redo my high school experience. These years have defined who I am, the friends I've made and lost, the choices I've made, and the atmosphere of this sheltered island even. It's all appreciated and will be missed. But I'm glad to move on.

I Ben Lyttle, bequeath well placed sarcastic remarks to Ryley, at least 7 full Frisbee passes to Gianna, and Carley to Maddy.

This world is wonderful and this world is terribly hurt. I perceive our lives as opportunities to do good with the great bounty which we have been given, impacting our fellow man and ultimately acting as disciples of our god. That kind of influence is not extraordinary in design, but miraculous in power. Life is all about love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. With that said, I really have to put my money where my mouth is. I hope we all do.

I, Johannes Raatz, bequeath many more prosperous seasons to Coach Silver.

Aw, come on, I was never the one who wanted to grow up, and I thought that alone would stop it. Even worse the economy is going downhill right when I'm sent out into the world. There's no doubt in my mind college will be great, but after that it's all bills, interstate highways, and long working hours. There I go, assuming the worse, but I'm definately hoping for the best. I guess I owe it to my parents to be successful and such, seeing as they brought me up all caringly and what not. That means I'll have to finally find some direction in life, instead of planning on being a bum.

Four years, countless homework assignments, a few field trips, two cases of passing out while in school, hundreds of good books read (and re-read, and re-read…) and thousands of funny looks from thousands of different people I've met. -Man of La Mancha (Don Quixote)

Throughout my four high school years (that went by so fast!), I haven't started to find myself, but have begun to create myself. Thank you so much, Mom, Dad, and Lindsey for helping to illuminate my life and my path and for supporting me in everything I do! I love you guys. Friends - thanks a million for always being there, making me laugh, never providing a dull moment, and refusing to 'stop believing'! I less than three you all! -Richard Kemph

It is the people that I have met here who have shaped my entire high school experience, as I know it. I could not be more grateful for the kindness and love these people who I now call my best friends have shown me. Not only has this been my first year at Nauset, but also my last. I don't think I could have done it without these amazing people I've met along the way. I wish that I could write novels about you guys but I hope you will all settle for a small can-can line of names. To my girls Morgan, Lyndsey, Marie, Katrina, Amanda, Chantal and to my friends back in Maryland, thank you all so much for being there when I needed you. I can only hope that I could do half as much for you as what you have done for me. Congratulations class of 09', we did it.

"The most beautiful thing we can experience is the mysterious. It is the source of all true art and science. He to whom this emotion is a stranger, who can no longer pause to wonder and stand rapt in awe, is as good as dead: his eyes are closed"

I, Mike Zoni, bequeath Conor Jacobus the ability to see beyond today and the present moment we're observing.

Ashley Barnett

All in all, I guess this was high school, which wasn't always easy. Its had its ups and downs. I'll hold onto the things that were but its time to let go of what had been and look ahead to what will be. Other days. New days. I wanna say thank you to my mom, without you I never would have made it and Amanda I never could make it through the day without you walking me through it, I love you and Dean we are twins... from the Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles to our matching shoes and everyone else who mattered to me, thank you for being there for me. What ever happens next, happens baby cakes.

I, Ashley Barnett, bequeath all I've got, which isn't all that much to a girl by the name of Megan.

High school taught me a lot of great things, it's the closest thing to the real world that I've ever seen and I thank it for being there, but now its time to really see the world. To travel, to see, to enjoy. Thank you to all my friends for being there for the good times. Good bye Nauset, hello world....

I, Nathan Norgeot, bequeath a smooth civil war to Ulysses S. Grant.

"I never once let my schooling get in the way of my education."
-Mark Twain

Duncan W. Pettengill

Absolutely staggering, that I should be in this position right now. The end has been a long time coming, and I'm finding it tempting to exploit all the "long strange trip" clichés. Memories? Blast, it really has been almost four years. Incredible, that I've been here for four years, and so much of me has changed. So much of those around me have changed. I've seen a good many great fires coming down to smoke and ash, but there's no way I'll say it hasn't been worth every minute.

I, Duncan Pettengill, bequeath the knowledge of loch to Alana McGillis, and all those with whom she may share it.

I would like to thank my uncle (Nasir) who sponsored my dad to the United States. I would like to thank my dad (Shahid Ejaz) who gave me everything I needed. I would like to thank my mother, for her prayers. I graduate from Nauset Regional High School. I would like to thank all of my teachers in school, especially MR. WOOD, he solved my every problem in a few seconds, and he is really very helpful to me. He provided me with teachers like Mrs. Gayle, Mrs Martha, and Pam. May he live long. I would like to thank my guidance counselor, Mrs. Smith. She has been very cooperative and helpful with me. I really like this school.

GOD BLESS AMERICA

Brittany Walker

Mom, Dad, Lexi, & Cory- You guys kept me sane; I can't thank each of you enough. Taylor you kept me laughing always had a crazy time. Robin- you were my best friend and are, always. Rachel you're my partner in crime. J'nae life would be dull without you, enough said. Much love to the Crew <3 I wouldn't be as strong of a person today if it wasn't for you few. "Hey you sooooo crazy" Never gonna forget how you guys were always there. Rock on crazies and remember, stay true.

DRAMA

The Nauset Players started this year out with Shakespeare's tragedy "Hamlet". Then the Honors Acting Troupe began working hard on the MHSDG competition play, "Polaroid Stories" by Naomi Iizuka. The play was based on Ovid's Metamorphoses but set on the streets of modern day New York City with the gods portrayed as homeless people. Not only was it a very intense and moving piece, but it also brought the Nauset Players to another win at the Drama Festival. The Nauset Players finished up the year with the musical "West Side Story" by Arthur Laurents, Leonard Bernstein, and Stephen Sondheim.

MUSIC

The morning of April 3rd marked the beginning of the music department's four day East Coast Tour. Students traveled to the cities of Annapolis, Philadelphia, and New York City. Events included attending the US Navy boys choir concert, a historical tour of the sights and sounds of Philadelphia, and a fun-filled day at Six Flags. Most importantly, musicians competed in an all day music festival, where Jazz Band, Honors Chorus, and Treble Chorus came away with gold medals. Concert Chorus and Concert Band were awarded with silver, and the Jazz Band and Honors Chorus won Sweepstakes awards for having the highest overall instrumental and choral scores. Adjudicator's awards were also given to Mrs. Beavan and Mr. Faris for their hard work. Scott McLellen and Trey Voegtiln received individual awards for their excellent solos.

We are very proud of the great achievements of the Nauset music students.

above & beyond the school day

Nauset Students take their educational experiences one step further by participating in extra-curricular activities. Their eagerness to get involved in clubs and groups supporting their interests shows throughout the year. The selection of after school activities and clubs offered to the students is very diverse; there is a group for everyone, no matter what your passion. In addition, students in these groups often give back to the community in the form of service, fundraisers, and entertainment.

Cheerleading

Spirit. . . . . Teamwork Strength. .

This year's Nauset Football Cheerleaders had a season to remember. For the first time in Nauset history, they pushed themselves past every obstacle and made it to the Regional Competition at Taunton High School. Another first for the team was the addition of two male members making it a co-ed team and allowing them to compete at a different level. Their season then carried into the basketball cheerleading season where they kept their competive ambitions and again made it to the Regional Competition for the second time in one year.

Showing support for one another, the cheerleaders brace themselves for a difficult stunt.

Nauset Community Lends a Hand

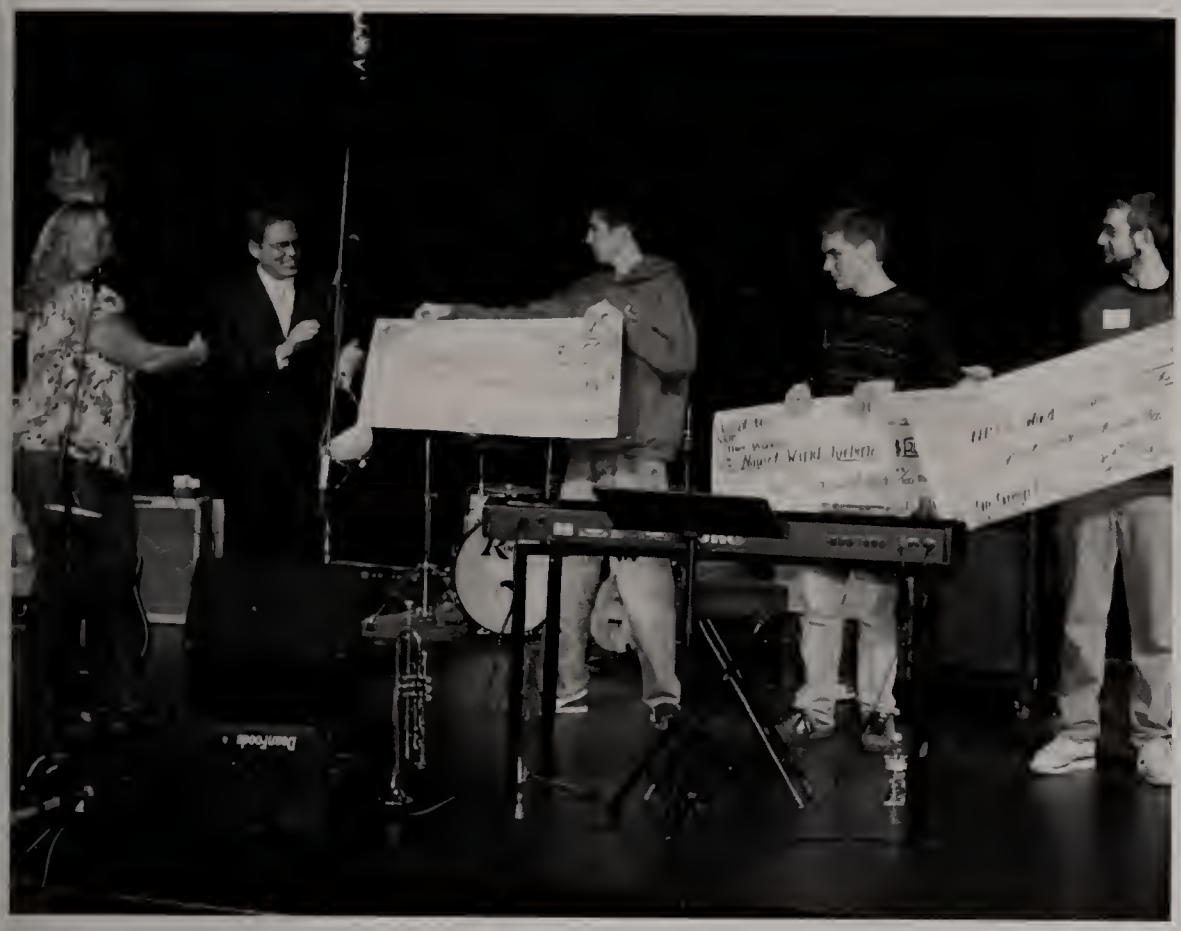
Going beyond the school curriculum, you will find Nauset students striving to give back to their community. Blood drives were held; Nauset donated 140 pints of blood. Students also participated in a walk for Multiple Sclerosis, the Relay for Life, raised money for children to go to special camps, volunteered at the National Seashore, and participated in the "Toys for Tots" drive.

In these tough economic times, finding ways to pay the bills has become difficult. For Nauset, the answer is blowing in the wind! Nauset recently had a "Go Green" fundaiser to help raise money for a wind turbine on the High School campus. If enough money can be raised, the wind turbine will provide a clean source of energy, pay for the school's energy costs, and create annual revenue to help keep school programs.

Giving a Pint for Half-Pints

Along with many other caring Nauset students, Senior Paul Ecker gives blood for the Children's Hospital Blood Drive. Each donation can help up to four young patients! This blood drive was sponsored by the Senior Class to support Norah Scholl, Logan Dunne, Grace Kobold, Tabitha Sobalvarro and all others in the Nauset Community who have been helped by Children's Hospital (above).

Kelly Slezak, Mary Shafer, Caitlyn Sipes, Pat Bianchi, and Emily Nowack all stand by and show support as their friend Zac Milesky donates blood for the Red Cross Blood Drive, sponsored by the National Honor Society (above).



"go green"

Checks were presented to the school for the wind turbine by the Class of 2009 ($3,000); the Class of 2007 ($2,000) and the Student Store ($500). The school community raised over $10,000.

Caity Coley, You are my Sunshine
May the good Lord be with you

And sunshine and happiness

May you grow to be proud, dignified and

When you finally fly away,
I'll be hoping that I served you well,
for all the wisdom of a lifetime
And whatever road you choose,
I'm right behind you, win or lo
May you never love in vain,
and in my heart you will remain,
Forever young. (Rod Stewart)
We already know how great you are... now, go show the rest of world!

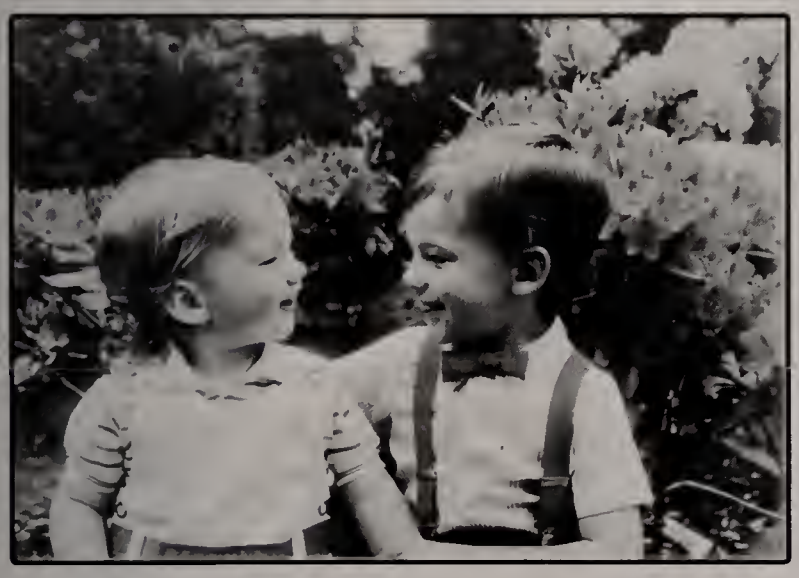
For Robin,



As I looked through all the photos, this is one of my dearest memories. It is an unstaged testimony of two of the best kids and the closest brothers. I carry this image in my heart.

It wasn't easy going through all those pictures, a timeline of you from the day you were born. Being me, I cried because you grew up, but I also cried because you found yourself. It's never easy to do that. Once you have, there are always choices and most of all, hope for your dreams.
We who love you, are right behind you....
Always.

Mom, Dad, and Ian

When you were a little boy you told wonderful colorful stories about the adventures of "my man". Eventually the stories disappeared and we missed him. Where was your friend now? Was he still nearby? Would we hear of him again?

He is still with you. He is the muse that sits on your shoulder when you compose a beautiful heartfelt song, paint a painting, write a story or master yet another instrument. May "my man" always guide you now and in your future.

Congratulations Amber

Come to me, O ye children!

Amy & Jessica-

It's so hard for us to believe our baby girls are almost all grown up. It has been our joy to be chosen as your parents and we look forward to seeing where the future takes you. I guess this means after all these years and different sports, we will now only be Nauset Fans instead of Nauset Parents in the stands. Weird!!

We know in whatever paths you choose, you will continue to make us proud. Together and individually you have always followed your hearts and your passions. Don't stop now!!

Always Remember:

You are ready for your next adventure but before you go remember: long drives to VA ... stupid cup ... family vacations ... dog sledding ... you're not the boss of me ... thrill rides at Disney ... playing Wavelength and driving the Wagoneer on the Outer Beach ... Chewy ... softball with Dad and the Grand Salami ... learning to waterski ...tug tether – help me with the pain! ... Your first college visit at age 8 ... jump rope and tap dancing ... apple picking ... keeping your composure on the ski slope ... hot chocolate and snuggling ... hours watching "24" and Bones ... saxophone and Mr. A ... flying on your own ... Schmageekee. We are so proud of you. Keep reaching for the stars. Your independence, "stick-to-itiveness" and outgoing personality will get you there. You intuitively know what is right. Be kind, and of course , never, never, NEVER stop laughing ... loudly!

Joe~ Hard to believe our "baby" brother is all grown up and has become such a caring and responsible young man. Growing up we joked you had 3 moms who were constantly telling you "no", mothering you, and even, yes, spoiling you. Having three girls in the house making you fortunate enough to practice painting your nails and using stick on earrings. We both love you so much and are so proud of all you have become. Lots of love, Emily and Callie xoxoxoxo

..."And Aubrey was her name"..."A not so very ordinary girl or name"..."like a lovely melody that everyone can sing"..."And I'd go a million times around the world just to say she had been mine for a day"...

My darling daughter, you are not very ordinary, you're extra ordinary in every way. You are a melody that everyone can sing and in just 18 short years have touched the hearts of countless and influenced all who had the pleasure to be near you. I am so blessed and proud to say that you were mine for 18 short years. It's time for Dad and I to let you go, time for you to spread your wings and soar. Keep your head high and know that we're there for you. Strive for excellence but never fear failure. The greatest of minds have failed and learned from those experiences. Let your conscience be your guide and NEVER give up! Stand up for what you believe in, make a difference in this world and HAVE FUN! Love others and be compassionate to all, keep your eyes open, observe everything and never take anything for granted. Let the Lord guide your steps and keep your heart true. I am so proud of you and your accomelishments. You are the best daughter any parent could hope for. Good luck honey, and remember striving for perfection and being perfect are not the same. Do your best in everything,the rest will fall into place. Dad and I love you so much! What a blessing you have been to us. We are looking forward to being part of your future, what ever it holds. You Know You Went To Nauset If...

You've answered the question "where's Nauset?"
You know what double rotating is.
You've heard the phrase "Boys & girls, class time!!" over 1,000 times.
Your school spirit shows more than your record does.
You've biked to Nauset Light Beach during gym class.
You get excited for Thursdays only because it's pasta day.
You count down the days until "Free Cone Day" at Ben & Jerry's.
You've been on the fan bus to a game for soccer, hockey, or basketball.
You know Amy Martin's favorite type of tea.
Your ritual is going to Double Dragon after the Homecoming Dance.
Your biggest rival is the DY "Dolphins".
You've argued with people over which class should have won Spirit Week.
You know what "the portables" are.
You never know if it's an A or B day.
You think anything west of Brewster is not considered Cape Cod.
You've signed the wall in gym class.
You know the truth about the "Secret Pool".
You've been excused from class to go to a Nauset Ball tournament.
You consider tater tots to be part of a major food group.
You know more than half the people driving on Route 6 from 7-7:30 am.
You have to watch out for not only Police, but also Park Rangers.
You know that throwing a snowball results in a 5 day suspension.
Your school is in the middle of a National Park.
You can drive to Sam's Deli with your eyes closed.
You know you'll always have a place to go back to.

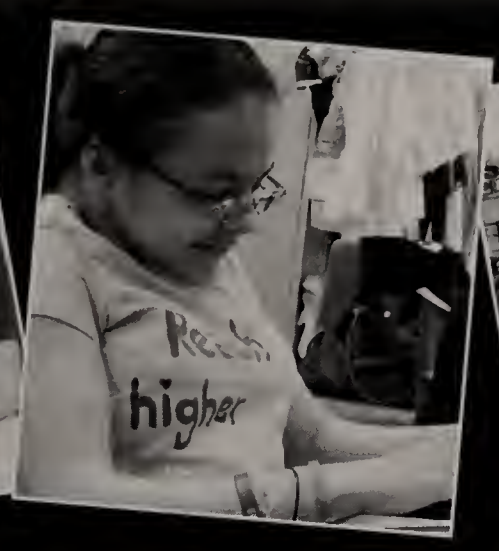
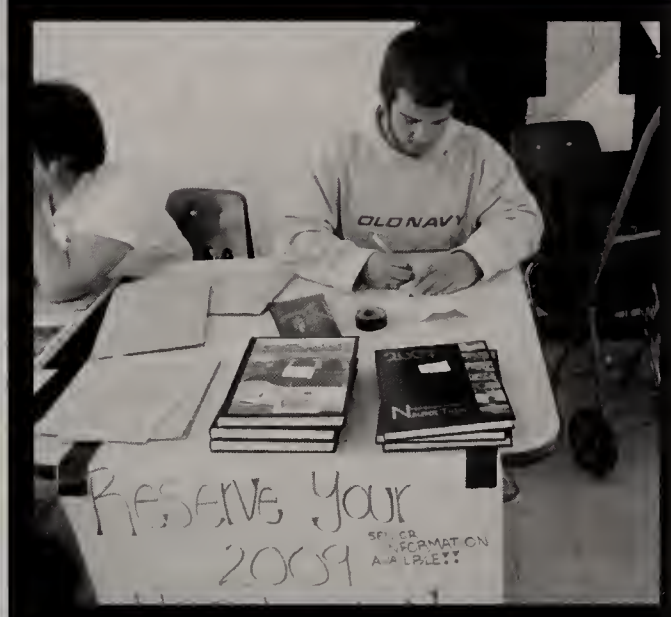
yearbook staff
*making the memories last...

The 2008-2009 Yearbook Staff was hard at work throughout the year. Putting together a yearbook requires a great amount of dedication, both during and after the school day. The group this year worked as a team to make decisons, improving the yearbook one page at a time. Without the abundance of time contributed by Mrs. McGown and Ms. Lebow, the production of the yearbook would not have been possible. As we complete this yearbook of memories, we hope to make your high school experience last a lifetime.

The Yearbook Staff also appreciates the generous time and efforts Ms. Spencer and Ms. VanTassel contributed to help complete the 2008-2009 yearbook. We also thank administration, all of the faculty, staff members and coaches for cooperating with us throughout the year.

Co-Editors - Courtney and Chrissy





YEARBOOK STAFF

... beyond the generations*

With gratitude and appreciation,

The Class of 2009 dedicates the Yearbook to

Mr. Michael B. Gradone

Enriching the Nauset School District for the past 34 years, Superintendent Michael B. Gradone has maintained a commitment to excellence which has benefited us as students, our schools and our community. As a result of his dedication, every student in the Class of 2009, as well as thousands of graduates before us, has been given the opportunity to achieve the highest level of education, opening up limitless possibilities to all.

Mr. Gradone is not only a well-rounded administrator but a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and a respected community member. Beyond his current position as Superintendent, Mr. Gradone has been a member of the Cape & Islands Superintendent Association and past President. He has served on the Board of Directors of Cape Abilities, was President of the Academy of Performing Arts, a distinguished member of the Cape Cod Educational Foundation, and a founder of the ArtsLink Foundation. He has served on several Brewster Town Committees in addition to his involvement with the Brewster Whitecaps since 1988. As a true New Englander, Mr. Gradone shares a love for baseball.

As Mr. Gradone celebrates his retirement from the Nauset Public School District, we celebrate and will remember all he has done to help us achieve our dreams. With sincere gratitude, our graduating class dedicates the 2009 Yearbook to Mr. Gradone.
